

Fairmount Water Works' Schuykill Soundings presents:

Global Water Action: A Focus on Rwanda

A Photography Exhibition about Water, Public Health and Spiritual Healing

Images from the Rugerero and Akarambi Survivors' Villages and independent locations in Rwanda: A Philadelphia collaboration amongst Barefoot Artists, JeffHEALTH and Engineers without Borders. Exhibit dates: September 24 – October 29, 2009.

Join us for the Opening Reception and Panel Discussion

Fairmount Water Works Interpretive Center

www.fairmountwaterworks.org

Panelists:

Lily Yeh, Barefoot Artists

Cameron Bass, JeffHEALTH

Robert DiFilipo, Engineers without Borders

Ticket reservations are required and can be made by mailing your $10 donation by Monday, September 21st to the Fairmount Water Works Interpretive Center at the address above, ATT: Rwanda Exhibit Tickets. Tickets will also be available at the door the night of the opening for a $15 donation. Ticket proceeds will benefit the Engineers Without Borders' Latrine Project at the Rugerero Health Clinic.

Make checks payable to: EWB –MAP (Engineers Without Borders Mid-Atlantic Professional Chapter)

Proceeds from a Silent Auction held during the Opening Reception will benefit water projects in Rwanda. In addition, donations will also be accepted throughout the exhibition.

Questions? Call or email Karen.young@phila.gov or 215-685-0719.

The exhibit is made possible in partnership with the Philadelphia Global Water Initiative (PGWI) and the United Nations Association of Greater Philadelphia (UNA-GP).

